REPORT OF COMMITTEES/COMMISSION/CONTRACTORS

Police Report: Officer John Wehner provided a summary of police activity for April, including radio calls, written reports, traffic stops, crimes, and motor vehicle accidents.

He reported on the recent Bike Rodeo held at the City Hall stating that it was a small but successful turnout. Participants were fitted with bike helmets and practiced riding skills through cone courses. In response to a question raised by Mayor Fortune, Officer Wehner shared that county police vehicles use blue lights on the driver's side and red lights on the passenger side due to historical traffic safety studies.

OLD BUSINESS

No old business.

NEW BUSINESS

Appointments to Committees, Boards and Commissions: Administrator/Clerk Milne and Mayor Fortune reviewed current board and committee openings. Initial announcement of openings outreach produced no new volunteers. Mayor Fortune asked to resend the request. Administrator/Clerk Milne also reminded members of the mandatory Planning & Zoning and Board of Adjustment training scheduled for May 26, 2026, at 6:30 p.m.
