ITEM #12: Selectperson's Public Comments

Bob reminded everyone to be cautious due to the icy, cold weather.

Trisha welcomed Brianna and Phil and offered support.

Al announced that Santa will be arriving by train on Saturday around 6 p.m. and expressed excitement for the event.

Phil shared his appreciation for the opportunity to return to the board and looks forward to working together.

Brianna thanked the group for the warm welcome and is eager to get started.

ITEM #13: Comments from the First Selectwoman

- The budget process is beginning, and the Budget Summit will be held in January.
- House Bill 8002 has passed; the Town of Easton plans to challenge it, and it may impact Seymour's Planning & Zoning.
- Congratulations were extended to the Seymour High School football team for their hard-fought season, with commendations to both the players and coaches.
- Friday is the Tree Lighting at Great Hill Hose.
- Saturday is the Emergency Management Toy Drive ("Toys for Team") from 9–12 at Seymour Stop & Shop.
- A Food Drive will be held at 67 Diner from 9–12 to benefit the Seymour–Oxford Food Bank on Saturday.
- Woodbridge Animal Control will be at Town Hall offering pet photos with Santa.
- The Historical Society will also be hosting Santa photos.
- Winter Wonderland will take place downtown on Saturday at 4:30 PM, featuring family activities. Santa will arrive by train around 6:30 PM and will light the tree at the American Legion.
- On Sunday, the Historical Society will hold its Holiday Fair.
- On December 13th, the Fire Department will deliver toys—residents can call to arrange for Santa to bring gifts to their children.
